Summer 2019

I am proud to be able to wish everyone in Perth—Wellington and all Canadians a Happy Canada Day! It continues to be my honour to represent Perth—Wellington in the House of Commons.

Once again this summer I am looking forward to speaking with many constituents and stakeholders during community events, agriculture fairs, and meetings which will take place across the riding.

Our communities share a rich history in agriculture and innovation. Thanks to generations of farm families, agriculture, agri-food, and agri-business are the foundation of our local economy. I am consistently impressed by the new technologies and innovations that are employed in the agricultural industry, proving time and again that agriculture is an industry equipped for the future.

Our communities have also left their mark on Canada's military history. The Perth Regiment served with distinction in both World Wars with its members going on to make significant contributions to our Special Forces and the Canadian Medical Corps. When its members returned home, they emerged as citizens engaged in community leadership.

In addition, the village of Arthur has been recognized as "Canada's Most Patriotic Village" due to its extraordinary efforts during World War II.

As the parents of three young children, my wife Justine and I often wonder about what kind of country we will leave for their generation. What new technologies will they live to see? What diseases will be eradicated in their lifetimes? What challenges will they encounter and what opportunities will they enjoy? How will Canada continue to be a force for good? The history of achievements, contributions, and legacies in Perth—Wellington gives us great hope for the future.

On the back of this newsletter I have included a Canadian flag which I hope you will display proudly in your windows for Canada Day this year.

I always welcome your thoughts on Bills and other issues before Parliament. Please do not hesitate to contact one of my offices with your comments, or if you require assistance with any federal issue.

On behalf of my family, I wish you a safe and happy Canada Day!
